

Advisor's Guide for Planned Giving

Gifts from Wills and Trusts:

When making a charitable gift to a nonprofit organization, it is vital the legal name of the charity, city and other identifying details be used. To name Middlesex Hospital in your will or trust please use the following suggested language:

Residual Gift Language:

A residual bequest comes to us after your estate expenses and specific bequests are paid:

I give and devise to Middlesex Hospital, located in Middletown, CT, all (or state a percentage) of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).

Specific Gift Language:

Naming Middlesex Hospital as a beneficiary of a specific amount from your estate is easy:

I give and devise to Middlesex Hospital, located in Middletown, CT, the sum of $ _____ (or asset) to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).

Contingent Gift Language:

Middlesex Hospital or its affiliates can be named as a contingent beneficiary in your will or personal trust if one or more of your specific bequests cannot be fulfilled:

If (insert name) is not living at the time of my demise, I give and devise to Middlesex Hospital, located in Middletown, CT, the sum of $ _____ (or all or a percentage of the residue of my estate) to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).
